

We at International Guild of Auditory Processing Specialists (IGAPS) recognize and respect intellectual property rights and are committed to fulfilling our moral and legal obligations with respect to our use of copyright-protected works.

IGAPS sets forth these policies:

1. The information presented at IGAPS conferences may not be reproduced without permission including any copyrighted work in print, video or digital form in violation of the law. Works are considered protected even if they are not registered with the U.S. Copyright Office or any registering agency outside the U.S. and even if they do not carry the copyright symbol (©). Copyrighted works include but are not limited to: printed articles from publications, electronic articles in online publications, online videos, movies, TV and radio programs, recorded music performances, images, training materials, manuals, documentation, software programs, databases, websites and blogs. In general, the laws that apply to printed materials also apply to visual and digital formats such as websites, streaming media, music downloads, mobile apps, CDs and DVDs.
2. To obtain permission to reproduce copyrighted works outside of IGAPS and/or to use such works in ways that are not covered by prior agreements, please request permission by contacting us via our website <https://www.igaps.org/contact>
3. In case of potential copyright infringement, please bring the matter to the attention of IGAPS personnel via our website contact page <https://www.igaps.org/contact>
